Practice areas

Anita has an in-depth knowledge of civil law, honed through years of dedicated practice and involvement in various legal disciplines. Her expertise spans civil, commercial, corporate, labour, land and administrative law, demonstrating her versatility and in-depth understanding of multiple areas of law.

As a Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (MCI Arb) and a designated arbitrator on the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators, Anita has demonstrated her ability to handle complex international dispute resolution cases. Her skills in arbitration and alternative dispute resolution highlight her ability to navigate intricate legal challenges and deliver effective solutions for her clients.

Anita's appointment as a Judge in the Appellate Division of the East African Court of Justice underlines her strong analytical skills and legal acumen. Her experience in this role enables her to approach appellate matters with a thorough understanding of legal principles and a commitment to upholding justice.

Her educational background and ongoing training in legal ethics and professional practice further enhance her skills as a legal practitioner. Anita's proficiency in Kinyarwanda and French, together with a working knowledge of English, enables her to communicate effectively with clients and colleagues of diverse linguistic backgrounds.

In summary, Anita's broad legal knowledge, strong analytical skills and commitment to the highest professional standards make her a respected and influential figure in the legal community. Her diverse skills allow her to excel in a variety of legal contexts, from dispute resolution to appellate decision-making.
