Practice areas

Kabuntu Leila is an Associate at MRB Attorneys, with 5 years of legal expertise in various practice areas. Her primary focus lies in commercial, civil and employment law, corporate governance, and arbitration.

Leila has a meticulous expertise in the evaluation of the rights and obligations of company members and shareholders by ensuring alignment with legal frameworks and fostering transparent and equitable corporate governance practices. Her expertise in corporate law and governance enables her to serve as a trusted advisor and legal partner to businesses of all sizes, guiding them towards sustainable growth and prosperity in today's dynamic business environment.

Through engaging workshops on Anti-Money Laundering and Combatting the Financing of Terrorism, Leila trained companies about the knowledge and tools to fortify their defenses against financial crimes.

Beyond advisory roles, Leila stands as a legal representative in court, advocating tirelessly for Clients' rights and interests.

Leila holds a certificate in International Commercial Arbitration from the Rwanda Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Cert. ICArb.), enabling her to effectively represent clients in arbitration proceedings and dispute resolution.

Leila offers consultancy services in various legal domains, including policy analysis and legislative drafting. She also conducts workshops and facilitates training sessions on commercial law, corporate governance and arbitration.
